In essence, Christian counselors use psychology as a tool, but they do not view it as absolute truth. Psychology is not a competing religion, but a field of study that could actually lead to a deeper understanding of humanity and, therefore, of God as Creator, Savior, and Healer.

How does psychology work with Christian counseling ...

When it comes to Christian psychology, a proper understanding of human nature does not end with affirming the existence of a spirit, soul, heart, and mind within us. The Christian position goes on to define human nature as inherently flawed because of Adam and Eve's decision to disobey God in the Garden of Eden.

I have been practicing as a Christian Psychologist for nearly 18 years now. For me it is a simple question of what came first. Firstly I am a born again Christian and secondly I became a psychologist. God created both body and mind. Through medicine we understand the body better and through psychology we understand the mind better.
