The Paper Makers And Stationers

The Worshipful Company of Stationers and Newspaper Makers, usually known as the Stationers' Company, is one of the livery companies of the City of London. The Stationers' Company was formed in 1403; it received a royal charter in 1557. It held a monopoly over the publishing industry and was officially responsible for setting and enforcing regulations until the enactment of the Statute of Anne, also known as the Copyright Act of 1710. Once the company received its charter, "the company's ...

4 reviews of The Paper Store "There is as much of a selection of non card options as there are greeting cards. Their recent renovation brings a lovely, neat and well stocked store. They still sell Hallmark products but I think the selection is much smaller than they previously had and less than other comparable Hallmark stores. They seem to be focusing more on gift and personal type items ...
